We're Back...

If you've been around the library scene for a while, you may remember our Info Magazine. It was a popular publication and included articles, in addition to a calendar of events. To focus on reaching our customers online, several years ago we discontinued the articles portion and only published a calendar.

Since then, we have received comments from both customers and library staff that they miss the articles. Well, look who's back! The additional content is back again and we could not be happier about resurrecting the articles within our monthly calendar. So please, tell your friends.

In this publication, it is our goal to share the latest news on resources available free with your library account. Sure, you can get on our website and find that information, but sometimes you want to hold the paper in your hands, flip through the pages, cut out sections to put on your fridge or share with a friend. We get that.

Americans Visit Libraries More Than the Movies

Oklahoma County reads over 2 Million eBooks in 2019

Earlier this month, Gallup released statistics indicating that Americans visit their local library more than they go to the movies. Many seemed surprised by this, but we are not surprised at all.

Our libraries are exciting places with something for everyone. Whether you're popping in for a storytime or computer class, hanging out to study, utilizing our computers or accessing our online resources, we welcome you.

Our library customers are utilizing library resources 24/7. In 2019 we broke records, reaching a milestone over 2 million digital checkouts. The Metropolitan Library System of Oklahoma County is a top 20 Library System for digital checkouts worldwide.

"Community use and interest in our digital collection has grown every year, reflecting library trends across the country," Collection Development Manager, Janeal Walker said. "We stay up-to-date on reading trends and popular upcoming releases that reflect our local community's interests."

Of the libraries included in the 1 Million+ list in digital checkouts, only 22 libraries reached 2 million or more for 2019, which includes libraries outside the U.S. And only 15 libraries reached 3 million or more.

We are proud of our library customers and we would like to thank each of you for helping us reach this huge milestone. If you enjoyed using our OverDrive or Libby app in 2019 to checkout ebooks, please tell your friends how they can get even more out of their library by downloading the free app.

Our digital collection includes over 150 thousand titles, and many of the titles we purchase are directly from customer recommendations. We strongly encourage customers to recommend an upcoming title they would like to read through the app.

To learn more about checking out eBooks visit metrolibrary.org or ask your local librarian.

March 2020 Calendar of Events

Escape From Stress!

Libraries host events to escape from stress and learn new skills

From murders to zombies, prison escapes, Harry Potter fandom and more, escape rooms have been featured on television shows and in movies. Popularity for escape rooms has grown significantly since the idea exploded in 2015.

There are currently over 7,200 escape rooms in 1,445 cities in 105 countries. Escape rooms can be just that, an escape from reality and stress that engages participants in critical thinking, problem solving and team building.

Not only do escape rooms relieve stress and improve problem solving and communication skills, they are entertaining. Escape room activities combine a variety of popular forms of entertainment including immersive theater and gaming.

"I think they're popular and fit with libraries because it's social and collaborative and a way of bringing a story to life," Teen Services Manager Emily Williams said. "Library escape rooms apply a new dimension to puzzles and logic problems and gamify them in a way that is familiar to teens and adults who play video games."

Library escape rooms are a great place to find family entertainment. Each session usually takes about an hour, is free and they are suitable for a wide range of ages.

In addition, some library escape rooms are designed to teach children and teens about topics in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) while engaging them in gameplay.

Whatever your interests may be, escape rooms are a fun way get on your feet, develop your problem-solving skills, engage in teambuilding and de-stress.

Read Across Oklahoma Events

Celebrate Read Across Oklahoma with the Library and the OKC Zoo! Join us on April 7, 2020 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the OKC Zoo for a special reading event directed at young children to celebrate literacy and encourage reading.

Oklahoma Author, Tammi Sauer, will read her new book, Wordy Birdy. Hear the tale of a very chatty bird who learns the importance of listening and discovers that good friends stick with you through thick and thin.

There will also be special activity stations and performances throughout the zoo. The first 2,000 children will receive a free book.

Read Across America Day: Read Across America Day is celebrated on March 2, and also widely celebrated as Dr. Seuss' birthday. It is a day to reflect on literacy goals or set new literacy goals to grow as a reader. Reading has many benefits and studies have shown that reading reduces stress and anxiety, improves sleep and may even help you live longer.

Join us for:

Seuss Extravaganza!

Monday, March 2
Bethany Library
4pm to 8pm.

Dr. Seuss Storytime

Friday, March 6
Northwest Library

Wild Weather Education Classes for all Ages

It's time to start gearing up for potentially wild weather around Oklahoma. Are you prepared?

The Ronald J. Norick Downtown Library is hosting weather programs for both adults and children this month to help families learn more about mysterious Oklahoma weather trends.

Kids can join us for Weatherschool to become little weather experts and learn to be aware of severe weather. Adults and teens can join us for Wild Weather Education with NWS to learn how meteorologists predict storms and tornados, and learn meteorology jargon like hook echo, rain-wrapped and supercell.
