

Rhythmically Speaking Presents:

A HIDDEN SOLDIER: I JUST NEED A J*O*B!

Rhythmically Speaking presents the story of Cathay Williams who disguised herself and reversed her name to join the Army as William "Cathey". Williams was not trying to make history, she just needed a J*O*B! From 1866 to 1868 Cathay Williams was a soldier in the 38th Infantry, Company A, making her the one and only documented female Buffalo soldier to serve in the United States Army.

Sat., Feb. 2 Belle Isle Library – 2pm
Mon., Feb 4 Ralph Ellison Library – 5:30pm
Tues., Feb. 5 Choctaw Library – 3:30pm
Wed., Feb 6 Luther Library – 3:15pm
Fri., Feb 8 Southern Oaks Library – 2pm
Sat., Feb. 9 Downtown Library – 10:30am
Tues., Feb 12 Village Library – 10am

Tues., Feb. 12 Del City Library – 6:30pm
Thurs., Feb. 14 Capitol Hill Library – 1pm
Sat., Feb 16 Bethany Library – 2pm
Tues., Feb 19 Edmond Library – 7pm
Wed., Feb. 20 Midwest City Library – 10am
Sat., Feb 23 Warr Acres library – 2pm

All Ages. Seating is limited. Doors open 15 minutes before each presentation.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Metropolitan Library System and the Oklahoma Arts Council.

