

Staff Crafty Talent Show Rules

The event is March 30th, at 6pm and being held at the Metropolitan Library System Downtown Library location therefore all event happenings must abide by MLS rules and policies.

- The show is intended to showcase MLS Staff variety of talents. Therefore, the main person providing the talent should be an MLS staff member.
- Talents may include (but not limited to) singing, sewing, drawing, sculpting, dancing, baking, instrumental, skits, music, comedy, juggling, photography, painting, etc.
- If you are displaying or performing, you must return a completed and signed form to Jessica Morris, DN, Chair of Staff Association.
- All who are part of the group act must be listed on the submitted form.
- Length of acts are between 3–5 minutes; if you need longer for set-up please email Jessica Morris at jmorris@metrolibrary.org.
- Maximum number of participants in an act is 8.
- This is a family friendly event, talent subject matter must be appropriate for all ages and MLS staff.
- Acts are responsible for their own props and costumes. Mics, chairs, and tables will be available. Just notify ahead of time.
- All crafts and performances will be viewed by the Staff Association before approval.
- There will be Fan Favorite prizes. There will be judges for other category winner prizes for 1st and 2nd places.

★ Unique acts and crafts are welcomed! ★

I have read and agree to the rules of the Crafty Talent Show. I will submit my registration by March 1st. In the event that I am unable to honor this contract, I will contact the SA committee by March 14th. After that, all vendor rentals will be non-refundable. Thank you.
