

ALMONTE COLLECTION SCAVENGER HUNT

Doing a walkthrough to explore the collection should take you about 30-60 minutes to complete. The purpose of this scavenger hunt is for you to acclimate to our collection if transferring from another location. If you cannot find the answer to these questions, feel free to ask a fellow staff member.

Adult

- Where is the Young Adult (YA) collection? What is the shelving order?
- What genre(s) are interfiled with the Large Print Fiction collection?
- Do we have a Foreign Language section or are they interfiled?
- Where are the High School Sequoyah items kept?
- Where are the new adult books? What other items are shelved in the New Book area?
- Using a catalog computer, search for adult level cookbooks at the Almonte Library, what is the Dewey Decimal call number of the book you found? See if you can find that book.

Children

- Where are the Juvenile Graphic Novels located? Tween Graphic Novels?
- Where are the Board Books?
- Where are our Spanish children's items? How are they organized?
- Where are Award Winners kept for children?

A/V

- Where are the newspapers and magazines?
- Where are the Feature Films (FF) located?
- Where are the Children's DVDs? How are they organized?
- Where are the Music CDs?

Other

- How many catalog computers do we have? Where are they?
- Where is the hold shelf area?
- How many display areas does Almonte have? Where are they located?
