

STEAMPUNK ART

GO BACK TO A TIME WHEN STEAM POWER WAS CUTTING EDGE TECHNOLOGY.

Apply that retro tech to see the future as Jules Verne or H.G. Wells might have seen it, and you're in the world of steampunk! Find out the origins of the movement and create an original piece of steampunk art. Taught by local artist Kiona Millirons. Supplies provided. Free for teens.

June 27:	Warr Acres Library	5901 NW 63rd	6:30pm
July 11:	Capitol Hill Library	334 SW 26th	5pm
July 18:	Belle Isle Library	5501 N. Villa	3pm
July 18:	Southern Oaks Library	6900 S. Walker	7pm
July 27:	Downtown Library	300 Park Ave.	1pm

Call ahead to register. It's part of Beneath the Surface, 2013 Teen Summer Reading.

Metropolitan LIBRARY SYSTEM
www.metrolibrary.org