Call to Order and Welcome

The first joint meeting of the PLS Teen Staff Group and MLS YA programmers was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by Lee Hall.

Presentation – Kiona Wooten Millirons, Artist

- ◆ Hands on 3-D collage project that will be presented during summer reading; Heidi can pay for this program and supplies
- ◆ Contact Heidi Daniel-Morgan, hdaniel@mls.lib.ok.us for further information.

Update – Scott Carter, MLS Marketing & Communications

- ◆ YA Summer Reading Program will not be promoted over radio for 2004. Not cost-effective or productive.
- ◆ Cable TV Advertising will be utilized, as well as ads in smaller news publications. (Not Daily O.)
- ◆ Grubbe Advertising Agency has earmarked 6 movies during the summer and will provide 300 tickets per showing.
- ◆ Prizes: good sign up prize, steering away from food coupons but working with various corporations for on-sight food donations; bikes will be donated as prizes; Scott is checking into other sponsors for teen programming
- ◆ Future possibility of using Eskimo Joe's as sponsor was discussed.

Presentation – Shannon Calderon, Dance Artist

- ◆ Offers dance programs featuring salsa, hip hop, etc. Can do any kind of dance.
- ◆ Programs from 1 hour to 1 ½ hours.
- ◆ Summer program will be most likely be provided courtesy of grant from Arts Council (similar to this year)
