KWTV Channel 9 Donates 36 Terrible Twister Videos (in Spanish) to Metropolitan Library System

Janet Brooks, Materials Selection, accepts and speaks about Sobreviviendo La Tormenta (Surviving the Storm) videos from Channel 9 camera man Darren Brown at the Capitol Hill Library.

Brooks, Brown and Phil Tolbert, Capitol Hill manager, look over the Spanish version of the Terrible Twister videos.

KWTV Channel 9 donated 36 Spanish language videos to the Metropolitan Library System, and on March 1, Darren Brown from Channel 9 came to the Capitol Hill Library to video tape Janet Brooks accepting the videos. Janet also was filmed explaining how wonderful Channel 9 was to donate the much needed videos.

Janet said, "We sent three videos to each of the 12 full-service libraries, since our Hispanic population covers Oklahoma County."

Friends BookSale 2005 raises $249,000 ($33,000 more than 2004.) Yea Friends!

Booksale customer Eileen Earley, left, received her little red wagon (loaded here with books) from her mom as a birthday present. Earley is a frequent booksale customer, and she said "I have my own little library at home."

FYI

News from Your Staff Association

J.C.Penney's Sale 50 % OFF

Who: For all current Staff Association members only.
NO FAMILY &/or FRIENDS (Non-compliance with this point will negate any chance of a repeat discount.)

What: A 50 % discount on regularly priced clothing and apparel. (Sale and clearance items with a discount of greater than 50 % will be sold at the tagged price. J.C.Penney's will not be discounting already discounted prices during this promotion.)

When: Starting on 3rd payday of March and running for 1 week.
(31 March – April 7)

Where: J.C.Penney's Crossroads location ONLY.

Why: This promotion was intended to alleviate some of the financial strain that employees may feel when trying to comply with the MLS dress code. It is not for goods other than apparel that can be worn to work, and is to be used solely for the needs of the employee.

How: Employee will be asked to present current Staff Association membership card and work badge with picture at checkout during the given dates.
